Surah 1 - al-Faatihah –‘ The Opening

Summary: It is named al-Faatihah, the Opening - because it opens the Book and by it the recitation in prayer commences. It is also named Ummul Qur’aan, the Mother of the Qur’aan, and Ummul Kitaab, the Mother of the Book. In essence it is the supplication to which what follows from the Quran is the response.

Surah 2 - Baqarah –‘The Cow’

Summary: This is the longest Surah of the Quran, and in it occurs the longest verse (2:282). The name of the Surah is from the Parable of the Cow (2:67-71), which illustrates the insufficiency of quarrelsome obedience. When faith is lost, people put off obedience with various excuses; even when at last they obey in the letter, they fail in the spirit and this prevents them from seeing that spiritually they are not alive but dead. For life is movement, activity, striving, fighting against baser things. And this is the burden of the Surah.

Verses	Description

2:40-86	The story of the children of Israel is told according to their own traditions – what privileges they received and how they abused them thus illustrating again as a parable the general story of man.
2: 87-121	In particular, reference is made to Moses and Jesus and their struggles with an unruly people; how people of the in their pride rejected Muhammad, who came in the true line of Prophets.
2:122-141	They falsely laid claim to the virtues of Father Abraham: he was indeed a righteous Imam, but he was the progenitor of Ishmael’s line (Arabs) as well as of Israel’s line, and he with Ishmael built the Ka’bah (the House of God in Mecca) and purified it, thus establishing a common religion, of which Islam is the universal exponent.
