PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Establishing prayer, enjoining what is good and forbidding what is wrong are divine commandments. These commandments describe the faith, define the believer and are measures of success in this world and in the hereafter."

-Mahmood Khadeer, MAPS President

Assalamu Alaykum / Peace be upon you all

Dear Community Members,

As we welcome the blessed month of Ramadan (commencing this Friday at sundown), I ask all of us to truly reflect and act upon the three commandments that Allah Al-Hakim (The Wise), repeatedly in the Qur'an, mandates us to carry out with patience: establish prayers, enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong. Let me elaborate starting with the latter commandment.

Forbid What Is Wrong

As I write this, we are learning that a potential suicide bomber exploded a bomb in Manchester, England, taking 22 innocent lives and injuring 60 others. Irrespective of the identity of the killer, such an act is not only reprehensible and abominable, it goes against the grain of what makes us human. When Allah Al-Matin (The Authoritative) commands us to forbid what is wrong, our duty is not only to shake our heads when innocents are killed in acts of terror but our obligation is to do everything in our capacity to root the world of such evil. Terrorists often claim that they commit murder to avenge wrongs committed against them. This is the reasoning of Shaitaan (Satan). The Qur'an teaches us that every life is sacred [5:32]. And to return evil with what is good [41:34]. Those who engage in terror and spread corruption on Earth will be disgraced in this world and punished severely in the hereafter [5:33].

Let us use this month of Ramadan to forbid what is wrong. Let us categorically reject terror. Let us draw a sharp line rejecting ideologies of hate. Let us have difficult discussions and face hateful ideologies head on. This is not being politically correct; this is a

Imam Joban's Advice

As Ramadan is fast approaching, Let's prepare our hearts and minds that we may be united spiritually with the Almighty one. Ramadan Mubarak!

The Philosophy of fasting call upon us:

to know ourselves

to master ourselves

to discipline ourselves

to free ourselves

May the month of Ramadan be cheerful.

Ramadan Mubarak!

divine commandment!

Enjoining What Is Good

The reward for a good deed done during the blessed month of Ramadan is multiplied many-fold. The Prophet Muhammad (pubh) taught us through his noble example and his timeless words that no good deed is too small in the eyes of Allah Al-Wajid (The All-Perceiving). This Ramadan, let us spend time with or call our parents. Let us reconnect with our family. Let us visit the sick. Let us empathize with the poor. Let us physically assist somebody. Let us increase our charity. Let us lead our children by example. Let us be a blessing to our neighbor. Let us beautify our neighborhood. Let us make a difference in our immediate community.

At MAPS, over the past weekend, before the start of Ramadan, we distributed boxes containing rice, lentils, oil, butter, etc. to many needy families all around the city. On the last day of Ramadan, we will cut checks to an estimated 1000 families just before Eid. In between we will have numerous opportunities to assist people in need. Please join at least one of the activities at MAPS this Ramadan to enjoin what is good.

“O my son, establish prayer, enjoin what is right, forbid what is wrong, and be patient over what befalls you. Indeed, [all] that is of the matters [requiring] determination.”

[Luqmaan the Sage's advice to his son - Qur'an 31:17]

Establish Prayer

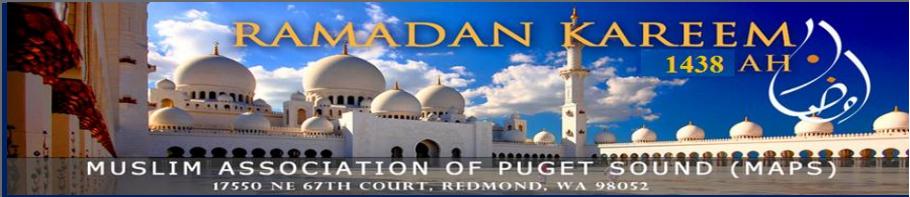

The month of Ramadan is above all a month to rekindle our spirituality, to rejuvenate our faith and to reconnect with our Lord, As-Samad (The Eternally Besought). The very purpose of Ramadan is to increase in piety. “O you who have believed, decreed upon you is fasting as it was decreed upon those before you that you may become righteous.” [2:183]. During this holy month, let us attain God-consciousness (taqwa). Let us attend the nightly prayers (taraweeh and qiyam). Let us remember God (ad-dhikr). Let us reflect, read and memorize the Holy Book (al-Qur'an). Let us detach from worldly affairs (I'tikaf). Let us become more holistic human beings. We will have daily programs at MAPS to ensure that we all nurture our spirituality this Ramadan. Please attend the taraweeh prayer starting this Friday and learn the details.

Establishing prayer, enjoining what is good and forbidding what is wrong are divine commandments. These commandments describe the faith, define the believer and are measures of success in this world and in the hereafter. This Ramadan, let us fulfill our Lord's decree. “We hear and we obey. [We seek] Your forgiveness, our Lord, and to You is the [final] destination.” [2:285]

Jazak-um-ullah-khairan / Thank you

Qiyamul Lail

"And as for the night, keep awake a part of it as an additional prayer for you: soon will your Lord raise you to a station of praise and glory!" [Al-Israa' 17:79]

Last nine nights this year will constitute last ashara of Ramadan, hence we'll start our qiyamul lail program starting 21st night of Ramadan.

'Qiyam' mean to stand and 'al-layl' means the night. So literally it means standing in the night but in the shariya (in Islamic context) it means it is a voluntary prayer which is prayed after Isha and before the break of dawn.

Accommodating Children in the Mosque

Children are always welcome at MAPS. During the Month of Ramadan, we offer parents programs that will help them with their young ones. Here are a few tips for accommodating children at MAPS this Ramadan:

MAKE USE OF THE BABYSITTING ARRANGEMENTS

MAPS is hiring several babysitters throughout the month of Ramadan. We are planning month-long activities and crafts for all children who attend. There is no fee to drop children with the babysitters. Please make use of these arrangements. If your children are not praying by your side, they should be in the babysitting room.

USE THE PARENT'S ROOM

Remember that MAPS has a separate Mother-and-Kids room and another Father-and-Kids room. These rooms are safe and both have live video and audio feeds of the prayers. Please use these rooms if you are praying with your children.

OFFER TO HELP

Instead of staring at a father as he runs after his energetic toddler or a mother as she struggles to calm a quiet baby, offer to help. A polite "can I watch your son while you pray" or "would you like me to hold that diaper bag" earns Sad- aqa for you and helps parents control their children.

DON'T SHRUG RE- MINDER SESSIONS

The Masjid has the responsibility to provide frequent friendly reminders for parents and children on the rules and manners of the Masjid. These announcements can be boring and even irritating but please understand that they are needed and help communicate the message.

CORRECT GENTLY

Anas bin Malik relates that "the Prophet did not use insults or bad language or curse" (Reported by Bukhari). Our duty is to remind children gently about the etiquettes of the Masjid. Children of all ages will stop and listen to a person who smiles, says Salam, chats with them, and shows kindness.

TAKE ACTION

In case of misbehavior, show respect to others: consider removing the child from the Main Hall and moving to other designated areas for Father/Kids and Mother/Kids rooms. If you expect the child to make noise, sit near the exits, so you can leave the Main Hall in a hurry.

The Messenger of Allah would pray holding Umaamah bint Zaynab bint Rasoolillaah. He would put her down when he prostrated, and then pick her up again when he stood up (Reported by Bukhari and Muslim).

Numerous Hadiths illustrate how natural it was for babies, toddlers, and children to be part of the Prophet's Masjid. The Prophet (pbuh) understood the nature of children and cared for their needs and comfort in the Masjid.

Children thrive where they feel a sense of belonging. If we want our children to feel they belong in the Muslim community, they must feel welcome at the Masjid. Children gathering or playing with friends are not signs of a rowdy Masjid or misbehavior. They are signs of a flourishing community in which children are building friendships that will connect their hearts and minds to the Masjid.

At the same time, a Masjid is a place where people come to spiritually connect with Allah SWT and expect a peaceful, quiet environment to worship, pray and reflect. When children are running around or being loud during the prayers, it can distract worshippers from their ibadat.

Fridays in Ramadan

Jummahs in Ramadan are very special, blessed days. At MAPS, we have arranged for inspiring Khateeb to deliver the sermon.

We will have the following khateeb join us during Jummah Salah at MAPS in Ramadan.

	Khateeb
June 2	Br. Hassan Hatem
June 9	Imam Mohammad Joban
June 16	Br. Alaa Badr
June 23	Sh. Rodwaan Saleh

“O ye who believe! When the call is proclaimed to prayer on Friday (the Day of Assembly) hastens earnestly to the Remembrance of Allah and leave off business (and traffic): that is best for you if ye but knew!”

MAPS Eid Prayers

Eid prayers are the most attended events at MAPS. There're kids' activities and celebrations after the prayers. We hope that you, your family and friends can all join us this year. MAPS will hold three (3) Eid Prayers on Sunday, June 25, 2017.

	Takbeerat Starts	Prayer Starts	Khateeb
1 st Prayer	7:00AM	7:30AM	Sh. Abdul Bary
2 nd Prayer	9:00AM	9:30AM	Imam Mohammad Joban
